

The Saga's Saga

The Saga of the 38th Bomb Group is allegedly very close to publication, the story of which is a saga in itself! We have all been anxiously awaiting to see Editor Larry Hickey's work that chronicles the history of the 38th. Please visit International Historical Research Associates for more information about this important tribute to the hard fought war in the Pacific by the mighty 38th.ATTENTION!!

If you or one of your family members has ordered and paid for a copy of the Saga of the Sunsetters, the publisher may not have the correct address to send your book. Please contact the president of the 38th Bomb Group Association to update your information if your family situation has changed. Click here to access our web form to send a message to the president.